

Second Study Commission
Civil law and procedure

Meeting in Dakar (Senegal), 26 November - 1 December 1983

Conclusions

THE EQUALITY OF HUSBAND AND WIFE IN FAMILY LAW

1. Each spouse should have the right to travel within the state or abroad without the agreement of the other. If this is contrary to the other spouse and children it may lead to consequences.
2. The family residence will be at the place where the spouses have agreed upon.
3. Both spouses should contribute to the household expenses according to their abilities.
4. Each spouse has to assist, support and maintain the other.
5. The spouse who occupies the family residence without any title should be protected in the interest of the family against any abuse of the other spouse in this field.
